Ar : Churches to Hold Associational Conference November 21

Brookneal Baptist Church is preparing to be host to the November 21 associational conference for church members who are involved in working with nursery, beginner and primary children (ages birth through eight). Above are pictured with their pastor the superintendents of the children,s departments at the host church who are planning for the accomodation of the conference. Left to right: Back row; pastor K. E. Thornton, Mrs. Newman Pollard, Mrs. Franklin Foster, Mrs. Clyde Hendricks. Front row; Mrs. Herman Ginther, Mrs. Claude Tonkins.

The Rev. Glenn Hatfield, pastor of Midway and Beulah Baptist Churches and superintendent of children,s work in the associational Training Union announces that a high quality of leadership has been secured for the conference. Mrs. Garland Moore, Director of Children's Work with the Virginia Baptist Training Union Department will be the general leader and will work particularly with church leaders of primary children (ages six through eight). Sharing in the leadership of the conference will be Miss Carol Ann Harrison of the Virginia Baptist Training Union Department and Mrs. Franklin Cain, state approved TrainingUnion worker, also of Richmond. MissHarrison will lead those who work with beginner children (ages four and five) while Mrs. Cain will lead the conference for those who work with children (birth through three).

As to the nature and purpose of the conference, Mr. Hatfield states: "One of the main purposes of the conference is to lead our children's workers toward the concept of providing creative experiences for their pupils. Bitter experience has taught us that it is possible for Johnny to learn memory verses and Bible stories without their meaning much to his later life. We need to give him experiences also -- experiences that make the verses and stories meaningful to him.

Some of the other topics to be dealt with are: Purposes and goals of children's work, equipment and supplies, room arrangement, effective story telling, using records and music, extended sessions, and parents meetings.

The Conference is planned primarily for the children's workers of the Appomattox Baptist Association which includes churches from parts of five counties: Campbell Charlotte, Appomattox, Prince Edward, and Nottoway--and extends from Brookneal to Burkeville. There are forty Baptist churches in the association with perhaps four to five hundred persons who work with children either in Sunday School, Training Union, the Sunbeam missionary organization, or the Church nursery. The conference, though Training Union sponsored, is for the children's workers in all the church programs and organizations. In addition children's workers from surrounding Baptist Associations and from neighboring churches of other denominations are invited.

The meeting will begin at 4 P.M., recess for sack suppers which each individual is to bring, reconvene at 7 P.M., and adjourn at about 9.
